

China Trade Mission to Hong Kong, Suzhou & Shanghai

October 6 – 14, 2007

This 9-day commercial mission is dedicated to advancing commercial relations with Chinese entrepreneurs, governments and multi-national corporations. A wide variety of industries and companies from agriculture, machinery, manufacturing, real estate and construction, tourism, education and financial services are invited to participate in this trip.

Why China?

- China's $1.2 trillion economy is currently growing at 8 percent yearly. In 2003, China moved past Mexico to become America's second largest trading partner.
- With its 1.3 billion inhabitants, China has huge potential, low labor costs, and a market that is now open more than ever before to foreign investment and trade.
- Since China joined the WTO in 2001, the world's most populous nation has become the fastest growing U.S. export market.

$3,000 Estimated Cost Includes:

- Customized Business Meetings with Pre-Screened Partners
- Meeting's with China Government Representatives • Hotel Accommodations
- Round-Trip International and Domestic Airfare • Ground Transportation • Translation Services
- Group Breakfast & Dinners • Pre-Mission Workshops
